The 1966 Yearbook Staff chose Erica as the title of our yearbook because the flower, Erica, reminds us of our new campus and the campus from which we came, Windmoor. The Erica is a hardy, yet beautiful flower of the heather family which is usually found on the English moors. It is known for its femininity and long life.

*All things have their season, and in their times
all things pass undêr heaven.*

A time to be born, and a time to die. A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted.

Freshmen . . 14

A time to kill, and a time to heal. A time to break down, and a time to build up.

Sophomores . 12

A time to weep, and a time to laugh. A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

Activities . . 26

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together. A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.

A time to seek, and a time to lose. A time to keep, and a time to cast away.

Juniors . . . 10

At time to rend, and a time to sew. A time to keep silence, and a time to speak.

*A time to love, and time to hate. A time of war,
and a time of peace.*

At a class meeting, seniors plan for their key ceremony.

This year Student Council sponsored a week of activities centered around the students' curriculum on Oxford campus. High points of the week included guest speakers, an English pub where "near beer" was served, an infirmary for sick or tired students, informal classes and lectures, and the wearing of academic dress.

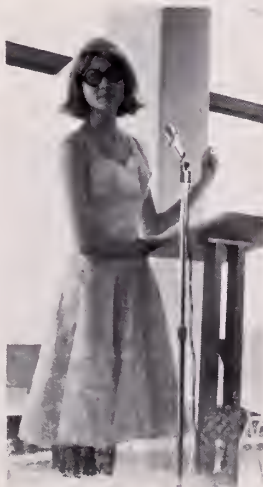

A Christmas party is given every year before Christmas vacation for students, faculty and administration.

Activities

This year the party included a program of skits and entertainment --and Santa Claus, who brought along his fairy, Jeanie Bond.

This year the Christmas dance, sponsored by the Sophomore Class, was held at the Commerce Towers. A queen was chosen through competition based on student vote. This year's candidates were: Ann Faughnan, Sophomore Class; Susan England, Junior Class; Mary Ellen Barnard, Senior Class; Mary Beth Field, Freshman Class. Pictured below is Queen Ann Faughnan and escort dancing with her court.

Mr. Zerne Paul Haning suggested a new fund to provide one student each year with all her books through the Haning Scholarship Fund.

Graduation

With work and perseverance, the seniors have obtained their hoped-for goals. The pride they feel, the happiness, the sense of expectation, the warm rewarding feelings are all a part of graduation. The day began with Baccalaureate and the conferring of hoods followed by reception into the Avila College Alumnae Association. On the evening of May 28, 1966, degrees were conferred upon fifty-five seniors by Sister Olive Louise, President of Avila College.

And I have found that nothing is better than for a man to rejoice in his work, and that is his portion. For who shall bring him to know the things that shall be after him.
